LORI HAIRE — No. 10 Florida State is planning for five receivers to start the season and has increased its scholarship allowances to help prevent a “Wild-Wild West” kind of opening weekend, coach Jimbo Fisher said. The Seminoles added receivers Kevin Reddick, Tony Jones and Tre Mercer — three recruits who enrolled in January — and brought K.J. Osborn back to Tallahassee from Clemson. Fisher said he’d like to see the Seminoles use more of their scholarship allowance, which currently allows them to give an
