What's new:

With a hero who has been cursed with the blood of the dead, and a benevolent father who inhabits the moon, the setting of the story is a world in which seven royal houses fight for power with each other and are duking it out amongst the Dead Sea. With this possibility, the game offers much drama to reflect what happens when evil and good collide.

The hero of the game, “Tarnished,” has been cursed with the blood of the dead. After tracing the story of a king named Ereluden who dwells in the moon, who is the father of Tarnished, Ereluden gives his face to the king so that he can enter the kingdom.

With a bard who has accompanied you faithfully up to this point, you enact the greatest hero’s journey by fighting giant monsters, dangerous beasts, mystery guardians, and more.

By holding a grudge against his father who sent his beloved wife to the moon, Tarnished embarks on a journey to search for her. In addition to travelling through the endless vast Fields of the Dead, you also have the option to enter dungeons and defeat huge monsters. And, in order to find and secure the king’s magical shield, you must go on an adventure through the treacherous Grand Canyon.

And, you gain the ability to freely communicate with other players, as you venture forth to do your best.

Premier Mike Baird made clear in his pre-cabinet press conference that the main benefit of the wide-ranging review of parliament's practices was providing the government with a fresh approach. "My assessment is that, since the last election, the system has been working very well and that there is absolutely no need to try to change it," he said, adding that the review would "provide us with a better way of doing business". Three years ago, an energetic younger lioness, posing brazenly with her cubs, flew into my window at sunset from Africa. It wasn't until later that night – and then a few weeks afterwards – that I realised it was the same lioness who had been captured in the famous 2006 'man vs lion' photograph taken by photographer, Sabrina Saelini. Captions revealed that the lioness was part of a series of roaming lion families of the Okavango Delta – a place famous for its lion dens and lionesses. These were seven individuals that Saelini had spotted during filming for her Emmy winning documentary, 'Chim
