Download as PDF, EPUB or read book online.Q: Mapping over array of objects in React I have a very simple react component: `import React from 'react'; class Test extends React.Component { constructor(props) { super(props); this.props = props; this.state = { items: ['foo', 'bar', 'baz'] }; } render() { return ({this.props.items.map(item => ({item}))}); } } export default Test;` The issue I'm having is, when I render the above, I'm getting this error: `Uncaught TypeError: this.props.items.map is not a function` However, if I replace `this.props.items.map` with the more basic `return this.props.items`, it works fine. Not sure if I'm missing something here... A:
