My Michigan native roots are often reflected in the "Mudder" in my real name name, Bernie, and by my faucet of pickled artichoke and barbeque sauce animals. To me, Arizona is the quintessential museum of American history and the central front gallery has more unique points of interest than any state. I believe Arizona is among the foremost reasons nationally why I love to work, visit and play. I have lived, worked, breathed and played in Arizona long before U.S. Hwy. 60 was upgraded to Highways 526 and 60! Anyone who may visit Arizona close to the present time will arrive at the living hubs of Ancient Route 66's Arizona Gold Rush Trails. I offer more than 300 nights of accommodation and will guide you to over 60 points of interest in the "Magic Valley". Feel free to contact me with your own Arizona campsite questions or let me fill you in on the history, culture, and events of our state. No one is more excited than I for our state's future. Let's get on a "designated" weekend tour to explore the natural routes, historic monuments and culturally prolific riches of the Arizona outback.
